

Aurora Free Library
BULLETIN BOARD POSTING POLICY

The Aurora Free Library allows the posting of notices of library business or activities and public service items of educational, cultural, or civic purposes by community members. Limited space allows only short-term notices.

The Library reserves the right to refuse any request for display and remove materials inconsistent with the intent outlined above.

The Aurora Free Library does not advocate or endorse the viewpoints of individuals or organizations posting notices on the Library bulletin boards. Items will be removed promptly after the event.
