Aurora Farmers Market Wells College Boathouse Lawn Final AFM Saturday is October 8, 2022

The AFM Management Team, Charles Guy; Ron Woodburn, Jr.; Vic Muñoz; Ellen Hall; Makayla Zapanta (Wells '23), extends our sincere gratitude and thanks to all the vendors, musicians Chris and Silas MacCormick and Greg Speck from New Orleans, Sandy Groth of the Aurora Free Library, Alexis Glennon and Natalie Kimbrough of the Create Kindness Project, and all the community members who participated as customers this season! Thank you for supporting the Aurora Farmers Market for 20 weeks during the summer of 2022!

A special thanks to Wells College for generously providing the space, facilities, and staff support for us to bring the market to the community every week! In particular we thank Brian Brown, Director of Facilities and Services, for maintenance of the boathouse and lawn, and the campus safety officers for opening and closing the boathouse every week. The provost once again generously provided the stipend for the student market manager intern this year, as well as in the past.

MARKET BASKETS TO BE GIVEN AWAY ON OCTOBER 8!

On October 8, between 1:00 and 1:30 pm we will draw names for two market baskets, purchased by the market from our vendors' products. Please register on October 1 and 8 for a chance to win one of these free prizes! We want to celebrate!

SUCCESSFUL FUND DRIVE FOR THE KING FERRY FOOD PANTRY!

To celebrate national and New York Farmers Market week in August, the Aurora Farmers Market and Patrick Tavern Market have sponsored an extended fund drive to support the King Ferry Food Pantry. We have raised well over $500, mostly from our customers! Thank you! The fund drive continues through October 8. Let's keep supporting our neighbors!

October Events at United Ministry of Aurora

Monday, October 4, 5 p.m. – Blessing on St. Francis Day
St Francis blessed all the animals. Our pets a bless us. Father Moorby from the Good Shepherd Catholic Community and Rev Barb from the United Ministry of Aurora invite everyone to bring their pets for a blessing on St Francis day at St. Patrick's Church. Cookies and pet treats will be served!!

Sunday, October 16, 5 p.m. – Know Your Neighbor Community Meal.

Please join Bill and Penny Cook and some of their Farm Workers for a conversation and a dish to pass community meal. There has been a great deal in the news about farm workers who come here from other countries due to war, famine and violence. We invite you to learn more about their story and their journey.

Wednesday, October 19, 5 p.m. – Theology Uncorked

Are you spiritual but not religious? Are you religious but questioning? Do you like to think about the meaning of life, or if there even is a meaning? Do you think about God, the Universe, Ultimate Reality? If so then join us for a glass of wine or cup of tea and an open-ended conversation where questions bring more questions and rarely answers as we discover that questioning can also help lead us to a life of gratitude, caring and giving.

Sunday, October 23, noon – Do you feel a desire to deepen your Spiritual Life?

Many people find meeting regularly with a spiritual director to be of invaluable support. Spiritual direction is the practice of accompanying people as they seek to deepen their relationship with the divine and to grow in their personal spirituality. A spiritual director is someone with experience and training who supports the journey in all its joys and struggles through deep listening, reflective questions, and suggested practices.

After our worship service on Sunday, October 23, Debbie Allen and Edie Reagan from Finger Lakes Anam Cara: A Center for Spiritual Direction will be on hand to tell us more!

Sunday, October 23, 4 p.m. – The Lord's Prayer with Dr Arthur Bellinzoni

Arthur will lead a discussion of three 1st century CE versions of the Lord's Prayer (two very similar versions in Matthew 6:9-13 and Didache 8:2-3, and a rather different version in Luke 11:2-4). The group will also discuss two more modern renderings of the Lord's Prayer: the Benjamin Franklin rendering of 1763, and a modern New Zealand Anglican rendering.

ZOOM. <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/88391303487?pwd=Y3lES3k0bmJlVQUZZZThDY3ZjNk1Zdz09>

Monday, October 31, 4-7 p.m. – Halloween

Stop in for candy and spookiness in the Social Room.

Tuesday, November 1, 4-6 p.m. – All Saints Day

Everyone is welcome to visit our sanctuary and light a candle for the saints in our lives. If you would like someone to pray with, Barb will be available in the Social Room.

Sustainability Perspectives

October 2022

All talks in this series take place on Mondays at 12:30PM.
All presentations will be offered virtually via Zoom.

October 17 Tompkins Food Future: Toward a More Resilient, Equitable and Healthy Food System

Katie Hallas, community food system plan coordinator, Cornell Cooperative Extension of Tompkins County

Katie will explain that Tompkins County is, by many accounts, a food-rich community characterized by agricultural abundance. Yet, observing the broader food system, it's clearer than ever: the current path is unsustainable. Characterized by extreme climate events, racial and economic injustices, ecosystem degradation, growing food insecurity, geopolitical instability, supply chain vulnerabilities and worsening public health outcomes, the time to transform our food system is now. Tompkins Food Future is building a more resilient, equitable, and healthy food system through community-driven planning and collaboration.

October 31 Sustainability Impacts of the NYS Cannabis Industry: A "Triple Bottom Line" Analysis

Dmitry Liapitch '10, Staff Engineer - Carbon Management Strategies, Kohler Inc.

Are you interested in going green in the green industry that intends to make some green from selling greens? Good! This topic will cover how to use the Triple Bottom Line of Sustainability to evaluate the environmental, social, and financial aspects of the Cannabis industry in NY.

Zoom #: 826 8137 3864 passcode: *DaA0pzT

The Sustainability Perspectives series, which brings in speakers to explore sustainability from a variety of viewpoints, is a program of the Center for Sustainability and the Environment at Wells College.

Discovering your Future in the Meta Dimensions of Sustainability

Mark Coleman, president
Convergence Mitigation Management
author of "The Dignity Doctrine: Rational Relations in an Irrational World"

Mr. Coleman will offer a dynamic discussion of current affairs, the state of sustainability in society and business, the role of individuals-citizens-consumers, and the nexus between corporations, government and society on truly manifesting a sustainable future. Many have a contextual sense of sustainability, but sometimes they don't fully see or understand the complexity of systems or the nuance of different points of view and sectors. The sense of urgency on climate action is rapidly intensifying. This can leave many feeling either invigorated or helpless, frustrated, and even apathetic to the state of affairs and fate of their future in the face of climate and sustainability risks. Having perspective on the role one can serve and having a vision for one's future given the need to change and adapt, can be empowering and uplifting and enable the individual to have resolve in how they engage within the multi dimensions of sustainability.

Author Reading and Book Signing with Kathy Lawton Purc

Saturday, October 22

4:00-5:00 p.m.

Howland Stone Store Museum, 2956 State Route 34B

Kathy Lawton Purc, Sherwood Central School Class of 1963, author of Stone Store Stories, The Memoir of a Free-Range Kid, will read from her book to share the surprising, sometimes shocking discoveries that come from reading and writing personal stories. Humorous and heartwarming, this memoir does not shy away from the more difficult events of her childhood while growing up on Mosher Rd in Scipio.

Chances are, some of these memories will feel familiar. School bus rides, Bert the Turtle, wringer washers, Necco Wafers? And if you need encouragement to write your own story or your family legacy for publication, Kathy hopes to inspire you.

Kathy credits her love of words, reading, and writing to the K-12 teachers and librarians of Sherwood Central School. Workshops, how-to books, and writing critique groups further developed her writing skills. Kathy's reading with audience Q&A will be about 30 minutes. Book signing will follow. Stone House Stories can be ordered from your local bookstore, or online at Amazon and other online vendors.

SIT, STAY, SAVE THE WORLD.

Saturday, Oct 22nd

@ 7 pm

© 2022 Warner Bros. Ent. All Rights Reserved TM & © DC

This animated tale focuses on Krypto the Super-Dog, otherwise known as Superman's pet. Since he has his own superpowers, Krypto enjoys saving the world with the Man of Steel. However, he finds himself challenged when Superman is kidnapped one day, and the other human superheroes can't help. With the help of superpower-infused animals in a shelter, it's up to Krypto to save the world and save his superhuman.

To us, it's garbage. To them, it's dinner. There are some busy scavengers who live among us-- crafty critters who share our cities and recycle the mountains of food waste our messy society leaves behind. Vultures, ants, foxes, opossums and others offer us many benefits, simply by sharing our space. This documentary presents a cast of vital creatures, each beautiful in their own right. Without them, our waste would be piling up and we would be dealing with many deadly diseases. Through the help of thoughtful and passionate scientists who have come to understand and love these creatures, we uncover just what makes scavengers tick. Debunking some myths along the way, we learn what adaptations they have evolved for this 'messy' job, what benefits they can provide us, and how us humans can work with them so they can do their job even better. Runtime: 54 minutes
