NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

- In February, Lars Peterson was elected to the Aurora Free Library Board of Trustees and Susan Dean was elected for a second term. The Board said goodbye to Ellen Wikstrom and thanked her for her many years of service on the Board.
- Nicole Jackson will be leaving us soon. Thank you, Nicole, for all you have done for our library community. We will miss you, but wish you luck in your future endeavors! Nicole will be at the library on some Saturdays as we search for her replacement.
- Aurora Free Library will host the Polished "Silver" Senior Luncheon on March 21 from 11:30 a.m.–2 p.m. Come enjoy some wonderful conversation, a delicious lunch ($8), and some fun! Call Cookie at 315-748-1279. Reservations required.
- Storytime meets on Wednesdays at 9:30 a.m. Children and their caregivers are welcome! Join Miss Sandy for stories, songs, and activities each week.
- Would you be interested in joining a Knit/Crochet/Fiber Arts Group where people bring their projects and chat? First meeting is Monday, March 13. Email staff@aurorafreelibrary.org to find out more.
- Would you like to volunteer to help at the library? We are looking for volunteers to help during library hours and on special projects. Reach out when you visit or email Sandy at aurorafreelibrarycny@gmail.com to learn more.
- Be sure to switch from Overdrive App to the Libby App for downloading books. Questions? Stop in the library during open hours and we will help you or see <https://www.overdrive.com/apps/libby/switchtolibby>.

Library Hours: Mon 3-7 p.m., Wed 10 a.m.–6 p.m., Fri 3-7 p.m., and Sat 10 a.m.–2 p.m.
Check aurorafreelibrary.org and Facebook for the latest happenings at the library.

Aurora Free Library Library Assistant Job Posting

The Aurora Free Library is seeking a creative, dynamic, flexible part-time employee to join our team. The candidate will work at the circulation desk, help in the selection of materials and assist in programming. The individual will be an organized, creative, and detail-oriented person who will help assess community interests and select materials and devise and administer programs based on those findings.

Primary responsibilities:

- Provide a full range of library services to patrons including assisting with registering patrons for library cards, material selection, on-line catalog services, interlibrary loan, reference, and downloadable training
- Assist in collection development including acquisitions, cataloguing, and weeding
- Work with the Director to design, implement, promote, and assess programming, including the summer reading program
- Work with the Director to maintain and expand the library's social media presence
- Plan and conduct weekly visits from local school

Discussion Series, *Waking Up White

Join us for a five-week discussion of Waking Up White: And Finding Myself in the Story of Race by Debby Irving. The discussions will take place on Zoom each Friday in March at 7:00 p.m. Our discussions will center on whiteness as a race, and the idea that racial equality can begin by the acknowledgement of white privilege. These meetings will culminate with a discussion of the resources available for folks passionate about racial justice and the possible next steps we can take as white folks. This event is led by Indigo, who has worked in support groups for marginalized communities for years. There is no need to worry if you can't make every meeting! Show up to ones you can. There will be a document available with notes from each week's discussion at the end of March. Please email librarian@hazardlibrary.org or call 315-364-7975 to request the Zoom log-in information.

Frontenac Museum – Save These Dates!

The Frontenac is pleased to host two programs to be held in recognition of Women's History Month, the month in which we reflect on the courage of women in past generations and to celebrate how their efforts and bravery afforded women the opportunities and freedoms experienced today. Both events will be held at the Frontenac Museum, 178 Cayuga St. in Union Springs and are free and open to all ages. Refreshments will be served. We look forward to seeing you!

On Sunday, March 5 at 1 p.m., Elizabeth Crawford will present “Suffragists & Abolitionists: A Look at Some of Central New York's Reformers & Their Historic Homes.” Beth is a Senior Designer with Crawford & Stearns Architects and Preservation Planners, an adjunct professor at Syracuse University, and active with the Preservation Association of Central New York. She currently directs the rehabilitation of the Opendore Museum in Sherwood and the restoration of the nationally significant Arts and Crafts period home of Gustav Stickley in Syracuse.

The second program will be presented on Sunday, March 19 at 2 p.m. Dr. Sally Roesch Wagner, historian, author, educator, and founder and Director of the Matilda Joselyn Gage Center for Social Justice Dialogue, will continue the “Celebration of Women's History.” Dr. Wagner has appeared on “CNN Special Report: Women Represented & Quest's World of Wonder,” and appeared in and wrote the faculty guide for Ken Burns' documentary “Not for Ourselves Alone.”

Think Spring! Starting February 1st, the Wells College Seed Exchange program is open for the 2023 season. All seed is available for free from our exchange and is available while supplies last. We have created an on-line seed supply inventory to review and an order form you can download and complete. The inventory list includes information for each item about the specific seed company donor if you wish to research particular seed varieties of possible interest.

To view the current Seed Exchange inventory, click here:

<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1T5dFfd1TKfYbMNS1CENP-wbRRiyGuTcw5SNFw8HA4Dk/edit?usp=sharing>

Note that this inventory spreadsheet features separate tabs for the inventories of Flowers, Herbs, and Vegetables seed.

This inventory spreadsheet is "view" only - you cannot "reserve" seed. Orders will be filled in the order received (using the form below, please!) and the inventory updated as we fill orders. We will do our best to fill your order and if you provide email or phone/text information, we will communicate with you if substitutions are available (e.g. an organic variety is gone but we still have conventionally grown seed).

To request seed, please download and complete this Seed Exchange order form:

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1c8bdxUmO3y6z2rA3GxM3BIJR60NPehVegjoJu-kArfA/edit?usp=sharing>

If you have a preference for seed from a specific company, please provide that information on the order form – we will do our best to accommodate your request.

Please save your order form with a new name - we suggest you include your name in order to prevent confusion. If you don't rename your order form, it will arrive to us blank.

Email your completed and saved order form to seeds@wells.edu; we will fulfill orders as they are received and update the seed inventory accordingly.

We will safely and sanitarily pack your order and will advise when and where we will have your order available for curbside pick-up on campus. If necessary, we can mail orders but in order to keep our program costs manageable, onsite pickup is preferred.

Our 2023 Seed Exchange season opened with an inventory of well over a thousand packets of different varieties of vegetable, herb, and flower seeds. Seeds were generously donated by several different seed companies. Please note that due to COVID-related supply chain issues, several of the companies that generously supplied large quantities of excess seed in the past are unable to support our program this year. Due to this shortfall in supply, we reserve the right to limit quantities to ensure that as many patrons as possible are supported through our program.

All seeds in our exchange program are available for free. Please note that most seed offered is from earlier growing seasons (which is why companies donate it to us); we offer no warranties about germination rates although most seeds should grow just fine. We may still receive a few more seed shipments, so check back for updates to the Seed Exchange inventory. But don't delay – once the exchange opens, the seed stock disperses quickly.

Check out our Wells College Seed Exchange and get growing!

Do you want to make a difference in the Cayuga Lake Watershed?

Community Science Institute needs volunteers for streams near Aurora!

CSI volunteers have been monitoring water quality in the Finger Lakes Region for over 20 years!

Join our community of volunteers today to make a difference in your watershed.

Our volunteers say...

"Nonprofits like CSI play an important role in protect[ing] our environment, and especially our water."

"I love getting outside and knowing I'm contributing"

"It is an important contribution to maintaining the long-term record of the health of the creek."

To join our volunteer team, send us an email at info@communityscience.org or scan the QR code below to access our sign-up form:

communityscience.org/Volunteer-With-Us/

We are specifically looking for folks willing to collect water samples on Dean's Creek, Mill Creek, Town Line Creek, or Paines Creek on March 15, May 4, and October 25. We will provide training and materials and have existing volunteers who can help support new volunteers! Volunteers collect samples that are analyzed for nutrients, E. coli, and Chloride, among other things, in Community Science Institute's (CSI) state-certified water quality testing lab. This helps us create a reliable, accessible, long-term record of water quality over time, which anyone can peruse on our database! To sign up, send an email to us at info@communityscience.org or fill out the following Google form: <https://forms.gle/mdy2dog58Bcb31DRA>.

Spring 2023

All talks in this series take place on Mondays at 12:30PM.

All presentations will be offered virtually via Zoom.

March 6 The Weather Business – TV to Private Consulting

Wayne Mahar, president and founder, Precision Weather Service

Mr. Mahar, Chief Meteorologist for NBC/CBS television stations in Syracuse, NY, has 43 years in TV weather and even more years in the private weather sector with his company. Most people see and understand the meteorologist on television, but few realize there is a whole different weather world in the private sector. This runs the gamut from forecasting for major concerts to high profile Hollywood weddings, the NYC Transit Authority to the Super Bowl, and even forecasting the weather for US Presidents. There are dramatic differences you will find interesting. He will also discuss how severe weather incidences are being impacted by climate change.

Have you ever wondered how WCA Award recipients are selected?

Join us via Zoom for our next Learning by the Lake!

Our Megan Donovan '88 served two consecutive three-year terms as a member of the WCA Award Committee before becoming Chair. She values the opportunity to learn about amazing Wells alumnae and alumni as part of the research process and working with fellow Committee members.

The Wells College Association of Alumnae and Alumni Award (previously the Wells College Alumnae Award) has been awarded to one or more alumnae and alumni annually since 1968. This is the most prestigious award bestowed by the college upon an alumna or alumnus.

Members of the current WCA Award Committee will discuss the history of the award and the committee who exhaustively research those nominated by their friends and classmates as potential recipients.

Patrick Tavern: Free Seeds, Cooking Demos, Treats for St. Patrick's Day!

Tuesday, March 14

4:30-5:30 p.m.

It's great to get outdoors on an early spring day, so take a walk (or make the short drive) to Patrick Tavern for another "cabin fever" market on Tuesday, March 14, 4:30-5:30 p.m. Marian Brown will be bringing free seeds from the Wells Center for Sustainability and the Environment: veggies, flowers, herbs, whatever is left from the annual distribution. Yes...free!

Need some kitchen inspiration? Vic Muñoz will be on hand with recipes and methods from Puerto Rico that are sure to give fresh flavor to staple winter foods. Sofrito and adobo are seasonings for cooking beans and pork, and aderezo is a light, tangy dressing that's great on micro greens. All the basics—red beans, black beans, red potatoes, garlic, pork, and micros—should be there too.

And how about a satisfying and tasty St. Patrick's Day dinner from Cookie? Pick it up on Tuesday, heat it on Friday (or whenever) and you're all set. Pair it with Irish soda bread, Garlic Herb bread, or sourdough from our talented bakers. And then, the treats: San Pedro Sister Community should be there with a full complement of chocolates, ground French Roast and Love Buzz coffees, whole bean French Roast and Colombian coffees, tea, cocoa, cashews, almonds, and dates. For gifts and cards - well-chosen and reasonably priced - see Ellen (St Patrick's Day cards with "lucky" pictures taken right here in this area, along with cards with Spring flowers, and a small canvas or two), Alicia (4 leaf clover leather earrings) and Cathy (beautiful purses).

Finally, nothing says "Spring" like maple syrup! Stewart's Corners Farm expects to bring the first of the season. Who else will be there? If you want the latest news and the convenience of ordering ahead—and the farmers, cooks, and artisans appreciate it—get on the email list by dropping a line to lschwab@wells.edu or call/text (315)-246-1130.

Haida artist Robert Davidson is one of the foremost cultural icons of the age. Haida Modern features candid and revealing conversations with the artist himself, along with commentary from art historians, politicians, musicians and family members detailing the importance and impact of Davidson's work. In the film, we see how Indigenous and non-Indigenous citizens alike—inspired by Davidson's art—are coming together to forge political movements, led by Indigenous activists and artists who are fighting the critical environmental battles of our time. That is the great and enduring power of Robert Davidson's 14,000-year-old indigenous Haida culture: the power of an art so beautiful, it must be seen over and over again. Runtime: 80 minutes
