Aurora Free Library

Open Meetings Policy

In accordance with the New York State Open Meetings Law, meetings of the Aurora Free Library Board of Trustees are open to the public.

Observers may address the Board during the Public Comment Period at the beginning of each meeting and are limited to three (3) minutes each. During the remainder of the meeting, observers should not take any action that might impede the Board's work and may participate in discussions only when invited by the trustee presiding over the meeting.

Trustees are not obligated to brief observers on matters before the Board, answer questions, or include observers in Board discussions.

Observers are not permitted to attend executive sessions convened under the provisions of the New York State Open Meetings Law.

Approved by the Aurora Free Library Board of Trustees on October 15, 2026.
